... v novem kinematografskem objemu

Sezono 2006/2007 si bomo v Sloveniji seveda najbolj zapomnili po odločnih korakih naše mlade, šestnajstletne neodvisne države v monetarni objem Evropske unije, malo pa tudi po tem, da na evropski filmski sejem prihajamo z enajstimi novimi celovečernimi filmskimi projekti, kar je za dvomilijonski narod velik uspeh.

Novim celovečercem, ki jih predstavljamo na začetku vodiča, smo pridali še tri koprodukcije ter devet žanrsko raznolikih in vsebinsko razvejanih kratkih filmov. S koproducijskimi filmi se še vedno večinoma poslavljamo od naše bivše skupne domovine, v tistih jugoslovanskih časih zamejene z vojaškimi karavlami, za katere naše nove generacije mislijo, da so bile nekakšni oficirski vikendi. Film Rajka Grlića nas prepriča, da so imele odločilnejšo vlogo. Pripadniki nove generacije, ki so vrstniki avtorja drugega koproducijskega filma Noč (koprodukcija s švedskim producentom), Mihe Knifica, imajo popolnoma drugačno filmsko vizijo aktualnih dilem sodobnega človeka. Njihove meje so lahko prehodne in njihovi emotivni odnosi poljubni; da je Realnost nekaj, kar se samo zdi, s čimer bi se strnjala Dafne Jemeršič, še ena debitantka, ki svojo stvarnost najde na Luni. Hanna A. W. Slak pa se v svojem drugem filmu Tea odloči za deželo gozdnih škratov in otroške domišljije.

Kar trije projekti z višjim proračunom, kot je pri nas običajno, so osnovani na romanah priljubljenega pisatelja Ferija Lainščka: Mokuš, Petelinji zajtrk ter Traktor, ljubezen in rock'n'roll. Mokuš je posebnost letošnje ponudbe, saj je avtor po več letih »birokratske« blokade uspel pripeljati film do velikega platna.

Po lastnem scenariju sta film režila pri nas že uveljavljena režiserja Maja Weiss z duhovito Instalacijo Ljubezni in Metod Pevec z dobro ozvočeno Estrellito, dragoceno italijansko violino, po kateri je film dobil naslov.

Še en ugledni slovenski avtor, ki ima za sabo kopico uspešnih gledaliških režij in romanov, se je ponovno lotil tudi filmske režije, in sicer Vinko Möderndorfer (nagradjenec Prešernovega sklada, najvišjega priznanja v Sloveniji na področju kulture) s Pokrajino številka 2, napeto zgodbo, ki se zaplete okoli ukradene slike. Film je ravno v produkciji in njegova glavna zvezda je Marko Mandič letosnji slovenski »zvezdnik v vzponu«, EFP shooting star 2007.

Mednarodno premiero bo v Berlinu doživel lansko leto proizvedeni film Kratki stiki, režiserja Janeza Lapajneta, ki je bil absolutni zmagovalec nacionalnega filmskega festivala.

Filmski sklad Republike Slovenije je skupni imenovalec vseh naštetih pridobitev slovenske kinematografije, saj je sklad od leta 1991 najpomembnejša ustanova, ki zagotavlja večinsko sofinanciranje projektov, podpira pa tudi promocijo in distribucijo slovenskega filma. Trenutno je v usklajevanju nova zakonodaja, s katero bi želeli javno sofinanciranje narediti še bolj pregledno in tako učinkovito v vseh fazah produkcije filmov, vključno z boljšo koordinacijo z javno tehnično bazo in s promocijskimi ter prodajnimi aktivnostmi.

Mednarodno občinstvo, tako festivalske navdušence in predvsem profesionalce vabimo, da si ogledajo, kaj smo novega ustvarili in veseli bomo, če se boste obrnili na nas s kakršnim kolikor predlogom za sodelovanje. Če se vam bo katera od petih sejemskeh projekcij izmaznila, vas vabimo, da nas obiščete septembra v sončnem in bolj ležernem Portorožu, na 10. slovenskem filmskem festivalu.

...in the new cinematographic embrace

The 2006/2007 season will be mostly remembered for the substantial steps of our young sixteen-year-old state into the monetary embrace of the European Union. However, it will as well be remembered for our participation in the European Film Market with eleven full-length feature films. Both represent a great success for a two-million nation.

Three co-productions and nine short films various in genres and complex in content were added to the new full-length features that are presented at the very beginning of the guide. With co-production films we are still bidding farewell from our former common homeland, at the time marked out by military "border posts" that are by our younger generations believed to have been some kind of officer weekends. The film directed by Rajko Grlič convinces us of their much more decisive role. Members of the new generation, also contemporaries of the author of the second co-production film Let Me Sleep (co-production with a Swedish producer), Miha Knific, have a completely different film vision of the present dilemmas of the contemporary individual. Their borders can be transitional and their emotional relationships optional; the Reality to be something that only seems to be is what Dafne Jemeršič would agree with, another debutant that finds her reality on the Moon. Hanna Slak, however, decides for the land of forest elves and children's imagination in her second feature Teah.

Three projects with bigger budget than usual are based on novels written by the popular writer Feri Lainšček; Mokuš, Rooster's Breakfast, and Tractor, Love and rock'n'roll. Mokuš is this year's speciality as the author managed to put the story on the screen after several years of the "bureaucratic" blockade.

According to their own screenplay, Maja Weiss and Metod Pevec, well recognised directors in Slovenia, directed each their own film. Weiss the witty Installation of Love and Pevec the well sounded Estrellita, a valuable Italian violin the film was named after.

Another reputable Slovenian author that has already directed many theatre plays and written many novels became engaged in film direction again. Vinko Möderndorfer, the winner of the Prešeren Fund Award, the highest recognition in Slovenia in the field of culture, shot the thrilling Region No 2. The plot thickens because of a stolen painting. The film is just being produced and the main role is played by Marko Mandič, this year's Slovenian "rising star", the winner of the European Film market Shooting Star Award 2007.

Last year's Short Circuits directed by Janez Lapajne is to see its international premiere in Berlin. The film was the absolute winner of the national film festival.

The Slovenian Film Fund is the common denominator of all the above stated acquisitions of Slovenian cinematography, as since 1991 it has been the most significant institution that provides most funding of projects and as well supports the promotion and distribution of Slovenian film. Currently a new legislation is being aligned that would make the public financing more transparent and efficient in all stages of film production including better co-ordination with public technical base and promotional and selling activities.

The international audience, festival enthusiasts and above all professionals, are welcome to see what we have made and we will be pleased if you appeal to us with suggestions for collaboration. In case you miss any of the five festival screenings, you are invited to visit us this September in the sunny and more leisurely Portorož at the 10th Festival of Slovenian Film.

Edi Šelhaus

2006 Edi Šelhaus se je rodil leta 1919 v Podkraju na Vipavskem. Oče in mati, ki sta bila fotografa, sta se odločila za njegov poklic: »Fotograf boš.« Leta 1943 se je s svojim fotoaparatom Leica odpravil v partizane. Priklučil se je novonastali fotosekciji SNOS in v okolici Bele krajine fotografiral dragocena pričevanja o vojnih dogodkih. Po vojni je postal mesto Trst glavno evropsko prizorišče, postavljale so se meje med vzhodom in zahodom (komunizmom – kapitalizmom). Zaradi tega so Edija iz beograjskih Filmskih novosti poslali v Trst beležit dogajanje v takratnih conah A in B ter demonstracije za priključitev mesta Jugoslaviji. Večkrat se je znašel z razbito kamero, pretepen, zaprt. Po tržaških letih je nastopal kot fotoreporter pri Poročevalcu (kasneje Delo), kjer je pokrival različne rubrike. Po upokojitvi se je 25 let posvečal raziskovanju usode zaveznih letalcev, ki so med vojno prisilno pristali ali doskočili na slovenska tla. Še dandanes svojevrstno spremlja dogajanje in sebe imenuje »fotoreporter v copatah«.

To je zgodba o fotoreporterski legendi, ki že sedemdeset let beleži slovensko zgodovino.

Jurij Gruden

Roden leta 1975 v Trstu. Leta 1996 začel študij na ljubljanski AGRFT, smer filmska in televizijska režija. Edi Šelhaus

Edi Šelhaus was born in 1919 in Podkraj in the Vipava Valley. His parents, both photographers, decided on Edi's profession: "You are going to be a photographer." In 1943 he joined partisans with his Leica camera. He joined the newly formed photo section SNOS and photographed precious testimonies about war events in the countryside of Bela Krajina. After the War the city of Trieste became the major European stage; boundaries between East and West were arising (communism and capitalism). The Belgrade located paper Filmske novosti sent Edi with his camera to follow the happening in the then territories of Zone A and Zone B and demonstrations for the city of Trieste to be reunited with Yugoslavia. He found himself with a broken camera, beat, and put in prison several times. After the "Trieste years" he worked as a photo reporter at the newspaper Poročevalec (later Delo), where he covered various columns. After he had retired, he devoted twenty-five years to researching of the destiny of allied pilots that ditched or landed on Slovenian ground during the War. He still follows the happening around him in his own way and calls himself a "photo reporter in slippers".

The film is a story about a legend among photographers that has been recording Slovenian history for seventy years.

Jurij Gruden

Born in 1975 in Trieste. In 1996 he entered the Academy of Theatre, Radio, Film and Television; film and television direction. During his studies, he shot short documentary Images of the City (1998), followed by short feature films You Need to Love Somebody (2001) and Moving Away (2002). Besides feature and documentary films, he also shot television dramas Triangle (2001), Waiting (2003) (Babić Award for Short Student TV Drama), and Enco, Thank You! (2003).

The full-length documentary film Edi Šelhaus - I Was There is his first major project.

Ko nepričakovano umre slavni violinist Mihail Fabiani, ne pusti za seboj samo dragocene violine, temveč tudi nekaj delikatnih skrivnosti, ki ob razkritju globoko prizadenejo njegovo vdovo Doro. Čustveno strta pokloni violinino nadarjenemu dečku iz revne družine. Fant odlično napreduje, Doro veseli, da muzikalna duša inštrumenta živi naprej, vendar v zgodbo vstopi Fabianijev razvajeni in frustrirani sin Julian, ki ga mika samo velika finančna vrednost stare italijanske violine, ki je seveda deloma tudi njegova legitimna dedičina. Konflikt med romantiko in denarjem postane grd, frontna linija spopada se širi. Potem pa nepričakovana ljubezen sprva še bolj zaplete odnose, nazadnje pa razroži obe strani. Seveda tudi z ljubeznijo ni tako preprosto. Podobno je kot z glasbo, nekateri verjamejo, drugi ne.

Metod Pevec

Rojen leta 1958 v Ljubljani. Na Filozofski fakulteti je diplomiral iz filozofije in primerjalne književnosti. Pred in med študijem je odigral nekaj vlog v slovenskih in jugoslovenskih filmih (večkrat je sodeloval s črnovalovcem Živojinom Pavlovićem). Napisal je tudi več romanov: Carmen (1991), po katerem je nastal tudi film z istim naslovom – njegov celovečerni prvenec, Marija Ana (1994), Večer v Dubrovniku (2002), zbirko novel Luna, violine (1994), številne radijske igre ter več scenarijev za celovečerne filme.

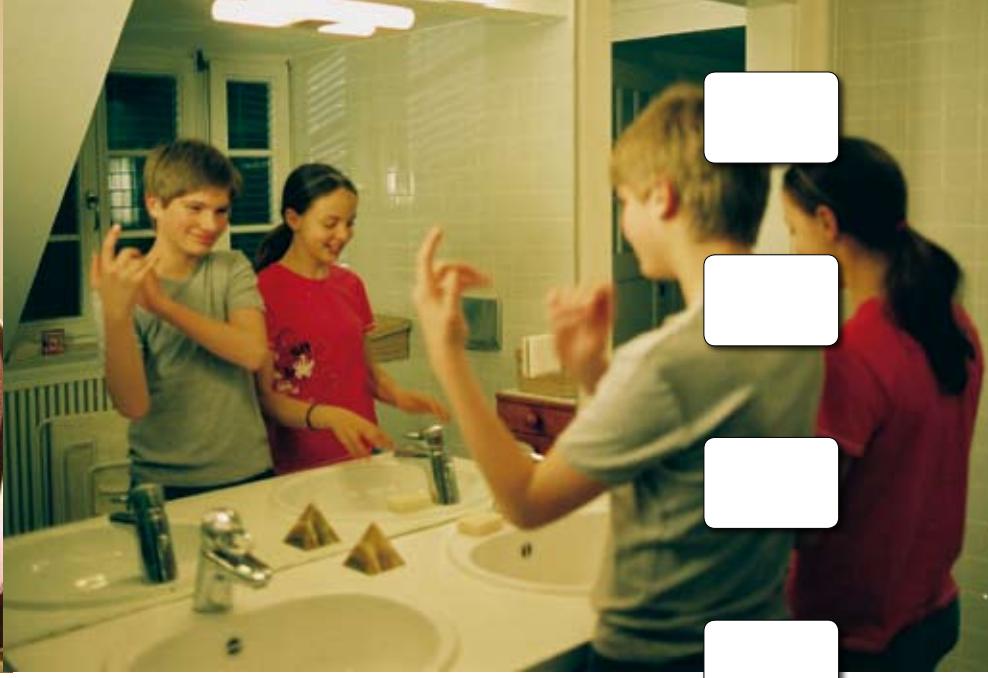

Izbrana filmografija:

1992 Vse je pod kontrolo – kratki igrani film

1995 Carmen – celovečerni igrani film

2003 Pod njenim oknom – celovečerni igrani film

2007 Estrellita – celovečerni igrani film

When the famous violinist Mihail Fabiani suddenly dies, he leaves behind not only a valuable violin but also some touchy secrets that, when revealed, deeply affect his widow Dora. Emotionally broken, she gives the violin to a talented boy from a poor family. The boy makes great progress with the violin, and Dora on the other side is happy that the soul of the instrument continues living. However, the spoiled and frustrated Fabiani's son Julijan appears, and he is only after the great financial value of the old Italian violin, that is of course also his legitimate inheritance. The conflict between romance and money becomes nasty and its front line spreads. And then the unexpected love at first makes things more complicated and finally disarms both sides. Of course love is not as simple anyway. It is just like music; some believe and others do not.

V majhni karavi na jugoslovansko albanski meji še ena generacija vojakov, zdolgočasenih kot ponavadi, čaka na konec vojaške službe in odšteva dneve do trenutka, ko bodo končno lahko za vedno slekli uniforme. Pomlad 1987 je in niti pomislico ne, da bodo v resnici uniforme kmalu spet oblekli in šli v vojno. To so zadnji dnevi države, ki se je imenovala Jugoslavija, vendar tega takrat ni vedel nihče.

At a small border-post on the Yugoslav-Albanian border, yet another generation of soldiers suffering the usual amount of boredom awaits the end of their service, counting days to the moment when they should take their uniforms off for good. It is the spring of 1987 and the thought never even crosses their mind that they would, in fact, put them back on quite soon and go to war. These are the last days of the country called Yugoslavia. Film je drama o treh, štirih spominih na noč, ki jo trije, štirje (četrти je sicer fizično odsoten, a tem nič manj prisoten) preživijo skupaj, brez obveznosti, osvobojeni vseh vezi, ker so prejšnji večer končali razmerja. Zgodba v filmu se odvija od jutra, ko/kjer se film začne, do večera prejšnjega dne, ko/kjer se film konča. Vse, kar se v filmu zgodi, se vrti okoli tistega, kar se je zgodilo pred tem, pred začetkom (koncem) filma, ko smo gledalci vstopili v zgodbo, kot bi nadomestili četrtega po njegovem izginotju. Film je zgodba o spominjanju, o treh pogledih na isto noč, ki poskušajo obnoviti njeno različico. Film obrača spomine v sanje in refleksira surealizem lastnih spominov in realnosti.

2006 Noč – celovečerni igrani film

The film is a drama about three, four memories in one night that three, four (the fourth is physically absent, but no less present at the same time) spend together, with no obligations, free of all bonds, as the night before they finished all relationships. The story in the film is happening from the morning, where/when the film starts until the night of the previous day, where/when the film ends. Everything that happens in the film is about what happened before that, before the beginning (end) of the film, when we, the spectators, entered the story, just like we were a substitution for the Fourth after his disappearance. The film is a story about remembering, three views in the same night that are trying to review its variety. The film turns the memories into dreams and reflects the surrealism of our own memories and realities.

Djuro works as an apprentice at master Gajaš's, who is an elderly owner of a garage. The tranquil life of the young apprentice is troubled by the arrival of the dark-hair belle Bronja, who is married to Lepec, the local ruffian and pimp. Bronja and Djuro start a very risky love affair that does not stay unnoticed. Meanwhile, Gajaš himself has his love fantasies too. He dreams about Severina, a well-known pop singer that is on the tour and is coming to their town. When an opportunity offers to meet her, Gajaš shivers with excitement.

Rooster's Breakfast is a love story. It is put into a small town, almost a village. The film protagonists live their quiet and imperceptible lives; however, each one of them has hidden passions that are the reason for the happening to dramatise.

On Martin's tenth birthday strange things start happening in the ancient forest. Even the friendly chestnut tree seems worried. A couple of strangers arrive from the city to live in Martin's house. Although the lonely Martin desired company for a long time, the newcomer girl Teah spells nothing but trouble as she ruthlessly invades his world. As if that were not enough, another disaster lurks on the horizon: malicious signs appearing on trees indicate the impending building of a motor way right through the heart of the magical forest. Can it be that the ancient trees will be cut for the sake of a new road? Magic and reality are inseparable in the forest. Is there a way to face reality and preserve the magic? What Martin needs most urgently is a true friend. Together they can fight for the survival of the forest. A big revelation awaits Martin on the road of this struggle: the source of magic resides not in the forest, but in the hearts of people.

Jaz sem iz Titovega Velesa je zgodba o treh sestrah, ki se poskušajo znajti in preživeti v krutih časih, ki so jih doleteli. Socialistična revolucija je propadla. Socialna varnost je postala nezdružljiva z na novo ustoličenimi neoliberalnimi formulami družbene tranzicije. Vrata so se na stežaj odprla novopečenim bogatašem, brezobzirnim dobičkarjem in povzetnikom, lačnih priznanja in ugleda, ki so prepričani, da se da vse kupiti, in si to lahko privoščijo. Glavne protagonistke so tako razpete med sedanostjo in povsem novimi okoliščinami ter dediščino zapletene zgodovinske preteklosti Balkana, kar še dodatno zapleta njihova življenja. Jaz sem iz Titovega Velesa je žalostna zgodba o razpadu in propadu neke družine. V njihovi peklenki dirki ni prostora za ljubezen in sočutje. Prinaša samo zmedo in razdejanje. Jaz sem iz Titovega Velesa boleče in odkrito razkriva te absurde

I'm from Titov Veles is a story about three sisters trying to get by and survive in the cruel times that came upon them. The socialist revolution failed. Social security became incompatible with the newly installed neoliberal formulas of the social transition. The door was widely open for the nouveaux riches, devious profiteers and upstarts, hungry for acknowledgement and reputation, who are convinced that everything can be bought and they can afford it. Thus the protagonists are caught between the present with completely new circumstances and the heritage of the complicated historical past of the Balkans, which additionally complicates their lives. I'm from Titov Veles is a sad story about the disintegration and decline of a family. There is no room for love and compassion in their hellish race. That only brings confusion and destruction. I'm from Titov Veles is a painful and honest disclosure of these absurdities.

Zgodba filma (nastala po romanu Ferija Lainščka Vankoštanc) je postavljena v zgodnja šestdeseta leta prejšnjega stoletja, v čas, ko se je rojeval rock'n'roll in so The Rolling Stones s svojo glasbo spreminjači svet. Breza, kmečki fant iz zakotne prekmurske vasi, želi s svojo električno kitaro nastopati na ljudskih veselicah, vendar mu to ob konkurenčni tradicionalne ciganske bande, ki izvaja priljubljeno narodno-zabavno glasbo, ne uspeva najbolje. Uspe pa mu s tako glasbo osvojiti srce vaške lepotice Silvije, hčerke premožnega "gastarbajterja" v Švici, kija je oče poslal v domače kraje, da bi si tu našla moža z zdravimi koreninami. Toda to je seveda še začetek zgodbe, katere osrednji protagonist je pravzaprav Düplin, čudni prištek, gluhomemski klatež, deček iz dežele južnega sadja. Zgodba o tem, kako je v našo vas prišel rock'n'roll, je namreč lahko komična in tragična, obenem pa je po svoje tudi metaforična.

2003 Kajmak in marmelada – celovečerni igrani film

The story, based on the novel Vankoštanc written by Feri Lainšček, is set in early 1960s, the time, when rock'n'roll was appearing and the Rolling Stones were changing the world with their music. Breza, a young country fellow from a remote village in Prekmurje, wants to perform in public festivities with his guitar. He is not very successful as his competition is the traditional gipsy band that performs ethnic popular music. He manages to conquer the heart of the village belle Silvija, though. Silvija is the daughter of a wealthy migrant in Switzerland, who sent his daughter back home to find a husband with healthy roots. This, however, is just the beginning of a story, where the real protagonist is actually Düplin, a weird newcomer, deaf-and-dumb tramp, a boy from the country of the south fruit. A story about how rock'n'roll came to our village can be funny and tragic, at the same time it can also be metaphoric.

Slovenska zgodba o uspešnem prehodu iz socializma ima tudi temno stran – mnoge tovarne so propadle, delavci so ostali brez dela, zaposleni pa so pogosto žrte neusmiljenega izkoriščanja. Ko sem izvedel kaj vse morajo žrtvovati ženske, da bi obdržale delo v neki tekstilni tovarni na Štajerskem, sem sklenil posneti ta film, ki prikazuje utrinek iz življenja sedemletne deklice Jane. Medtem ko sta njena mama in oče na delu, je Jana sama, saj zaradi vodenih koz ne more v šolo. V otroški razposajenosti se odpravi na potep, vedno večjim nevarnostim naproti.

A Slovenian story about how the successful transition from socialism as well has its dark side; many factories were ruined, workers became unemployed, and those employed are very often victims of ruthless exploitation. When I learned about what women have to sacrifice in order to keep their jobs in a factory in Štajerska, I decided to make this film. It is about the life of a seven-year-old Jana. While her father and mother are working, Jana is alone as she has smallpoxes and cannot go to school. Being frolicsome just like all children, she goes out and rambles around towards rising dangers that are threatening her.

Ohcet v lovski koči. Nagačene živali na stenah, meso na mizah, vse se zdi vedro in radostno, kot se za pravo ohcet spodobi. Pa so res vsi srečni in dobrinamerni? Starši neveste in ženina se pretvarjajo, da so si všeč, čeprav ni tako. Nadalje, kakor čas mineva, postaja jasno, da tudi možje prezirajo svoje žene in nasprotno. Enako velja celo za mladoporačenca, saj oba čutita privlačnost do nekoga tretjega in četrtega. Tu so tudi mesar, ki je že sit tega, da ga prekinjajo med rezanjem mesa, ter mnogo drugih likov, vsak s svojo lastno spletko. Ljudje smo čudne živali z najrazličnejšimi skritimi nagoni: zavistjo, sovraštvo, poželenjem ... Ni treba veliko, da vse to privre na plan, in ko se sproži plaz, ga je težko ustaviti. Vse maske bodo padle in postal bo jasno, kdo je žival in kdo zver.

A wedding in a hunting lodge. Stuffed animals on the walls, tables full of meat, everything seems to be just as cheerful and joyful as it should be at a wedding. But, is really everyone happy and well-intentioned? Parents of the bride and groom pretend to like each other, although they do not. Furthermore, as time passes, it becomes clear that men despise their wives and they despise them as well. It is the same with the newlyweds that are both attracted to other people. Here is also a butcher that is tired of being interrupted all the time while he is cutting meat and many others, each one of them with an intrigue. People are strange animals with various instincts: envy, hate, desire etc. Not much is necessary all these hidden instincts to come out and when things start to go wrong they are almost impossible to be stopped. All the masks will fall and it will become obvious who is the human and who is the beast.

Filmski sklad Republike Slovenije – javni sklad je osrednja slovenska filmska ustanova, ki skrbi za razvoj slovenske kinematografije v celoti. Njegova glavna področja so sofinanciranje scenaristike in projektov v razvoju, filmske produkcije, distribucije in promocije ter sofinanciranje drugih akcij s področja filma, kot so festivali in izobraževanja.

Od ustanovitve leta 1995 je Filmski sklad tako sofinanciral veliko večino slovenskih filmov, pripomogel k njihovi uveljavitvi doma in v tujini ter bil sopotnik novih generacij slovenskih avtorjev. Pozornost namenja celotnemu spektru produkcije, od kratkih, srednjemetažnih do celovečernih filmov, igranih, dokumentarnih in animiranih projektov ter je usmerjen v raznovrstno programsko politiko. Zgorenje je podatek, da je Filmski sklad od leta 1995 z različnimi finančnimi deleži sofinanciral več kot 50 celovečernih filmov, med temi so tudi koprodukcije, saj je Slovenija članica Eurimagesa. Od leta 2004 so mu zaupali tudi vodenje Media Deska.

Na področju promocije Filmski sklad skrbi predvsem za ustrezno promocijo slovenskega filma v tujini z udeležbo na festivalih in sejmih ter pripravo retrospektiv. Sklad je namreč prevzel produkcijske pravice za številne slovenske klasične, ki so še vedno priljubljene med vsemi generacijami gledalcev. Od leta 2005 je član organizacije European Film Promotion, ki s številnimi dejavnostmi postavlja slovenski film ob bok evropskemu.

Filmski sklad je vsako leto organizator Festivala slovenskega filma. Ta nadaljuje tradicijo enoletnih pregledov tovrstne slovenske ustvarjalnosti, ki so se začeli kot Tedni domačega filma, v zadnjih letih pa je postal profesionalna in institucionalizirana prireditev.

Slovenian Film Fund

The Slovenian Film Fund is the central Slovenian film institution, which works on the development of the Slovenian cinematography as a whole. The main activities of the Film Fund are the co-financing of screenwriting and the projects in development, film production, distribution and promotion, and the co-financing of other actions in the field of film, for example festivals and education. Since its establishment in 1995 the Film Fund has co-financed the majority of Slovenian films, worked on their recognition at home and abroad, and assisted the new generation of Slovenian authors. The Film Fund focuses on the whole range of film production from short and medium-length to full-length films, fiction, documentary and animated projects, and is oriented towards a variety of program policies. The fact that since 1995 the Film Fund has co-financed more than 50 feature films with different financial shares, among them also co-productions (since Slovenia is a member of Eurimages), is very significant. Since 2004 the Film Fund has also had a task of managing the Slovenian Media Desk office.

As far as promotion is concerned, Film Fund mostly ensures suitable promotion of the Slovenian film abroad by participating at festivals and film markets as well as by preparing retrospectives. Namely, the Fund has taken over the production rights for numerous Slovenian classics, which are still popular films with all generations of viewers. Since 2005 the Film Fund has been a member of the European Film Promotion organisation, which treats the Slovenian film on an even ground with European film in its numerous activities.

Every year the Film Fund organises the Festival of Slovenian Film. This festival continues the tradition of yearly overviews of Slovenian film creativity, which started as the Weeks of the National Film, while in the last few years it has become a professional and institutionalised event.

Festival slovenskega filma

Osnovni nameni Festivala slovenskega filma (FSF) so pregled in prikazovanje avdiovizualne produkcije zadnjega leta in podelitev nagrad za najvidnejše dosežke in ustvarjalce. Festival je naslednik vsakoletnih pregledov slovenske filmske ustvarjalnosti, ki so se v sedemdesetih letih 20. stoletja začeli kot Teden domačega filma v Celju in po prekinitti nadaljevali kot Slovenski filmski maraton v Portorožu, kjer je bil tudi lani uspešno zaključen že 9. festival slovenskega filma.

Festival slovenskega filma je sodoben dogodek, na katerem se srečujejo filmski delavci, producenti, distributerji, prikazovalci, strokovna javnost, poslovni partnerji, ljubitelji in gledalci. Je vsakoletno srečanje, na katerem se v več dvoranah nekaj dni zapored vrati mnogo projekcij, vrstijo se novinarske konference, strokovna in poslovna srečanja, zaključi pa se s podelitvijo nagrad vesna.

Festival povezuje sodobni slovenski film, nove pristope in tehnologije ter mlado generacijo avtorjev z bogato tradicijo, v kateri so zapisana velika imena, ki so s svojo ustvarjalnostjo usmerjala pot domačega filma. Vesna tako simbolizira moč junakinje iz legendarnega istoimenskega filma iz leta 1955.

Društvo slovenskih filmskih ustvarjalcev podeljuje na festivalu nagrado Metod Badjura za živiljenjsko delo, ki nosi ime po pionirju dokumentarnega filma.

Festival of Slovenian Film

The main purpose of the Festival of Slovenian Film (FSF) is to organise an overview of the last year's production, to present it and to give the awards for the most prominent achievements and artists. The Festival is the successor to annual reviews of the Slovenian film creativity, which started in the 1970s as the Week of the National Film in Celje and, after a break, continued as the Slovenian Film Marathon in Portorož, where the 9th Festival of Slovenian Film successfully concluded last year.

The Festival of Slovenian Film is a contemporary film event where filmmakers, producers, distributors, exhibitors, professional community, business partners, enthusiasts and viewers meet. It is an annual film convention, where many films are projected in several cinemas for several days in a row, where news conferences, professional and business meetings are organised, and which concludes with the final Vesna Awards event.

The Festival of Slovenian Film brings together the contemporary Slovenian film, new approaches and technologies and the young generation of authors, and the rich tradition of Slovenian film with all of its important artists, who paved the road of the national film with their creativity. Thus the Vesna Award is a symbol of the power of the heroine from the legendary film with the same name, dating back to 1955.

At the Festival the Association of Slovenian Filmmakers gives the Metod Badjura Award for life's work, named after the pioneer of documentary films.

Slovenski filmski arhiv

Slovenski filmski arhiv pri Arhivu Republike Slovenije (krajše SFA) je bil ustanovljen leta 1968 po arhivskem zakonu in je ena izmed najstarejših tovrstnih ustanov v tem delu Evrope. Glavne naloge SFA so evidentiranje, zbiranje in hramba ter strokovna obdelava slovenskega filmskega arhivskega gradiva. Od ustanovitve je zbranih več kot šest tisoč naslovov ali dobrih devetdeset odstotkov slovenskih filmov, od najstarejšega iz leta 1905 do najnovješje produkcije, kar je tudi v svetovnem pogledu izjemen uspeh. V zbirki so vse zvrsti, odigranih in dokumentarnih do animiranih in eksperimentalnih, tako profesionalne stvaritev kot amaterski filmi. Osnovni podatki o vseh so obdelani v interni centralni računalniški evidenci. Vsebina več kot 2300 filmov pa je uporabnikom dostopna tako v knjižni kot računalniški obliki na internetu na naslovu www.arhiv.gov.si.

Filmsko arhivsko gradivo je dostopno vsem uporabnikom, tako iz Slovenije kot tujine za študijske, znanstvenoraziskovalne, kulturnoprosvetne in komercialne namene. Pregled in izbor gradiva se opravi na montažni mizi ali preko videorekorderja ali računalnika. Za uporabo filmov za kopiranje na filmski trak ali na magnetne in optične nosilce in za projekcije Arhiv Republike Slovenije sklepa z uporabniki pogodbe v skladu z veljavno zakonodajo s tega področja. SFA je polnopravni član FIAF (Mednarodno združenje filmskih arhivov in kinotek) in je v sodelovanju s Slovensko kinoteko leta 2005 v Ljubljani gostil 61. kongres FIAF.

The Slovenian Film Archive

The Slovenian Film Archive (SFA) at the Archives of the Republic of Slovenia was founded in 1968 pursuant to the Law on the Archival Material and is one of the oldest such institutions in this part of Europe. The main task of the SFA is keeping records, compiling and keeping, and professional processing of Slovenian film archival material. Since its founding, more than six thousand films or a good ninety percent of Slovenian films have been collected; from the oldest one in 1905 to the latest production, which is an extraordinary success even worldwide. All film genres can be found in the collection; from feature and documentary films to animated and experimental; professional creations as well as amateur films. The basic information about all films are processed in the internal central computer record. Content of more than 2,300 films is accessible to users in the literary or computer form on the Internet: www.arhiv.gov.si.

The film archival material is accessible to all users, from Slovenia and to those from abroad for studies and scientific research and also for cultural and educational, and commercial purposes. The survey and selection of material is performed at the editing table or over a video recorder or computer. When films are rented to be recorded on a video tape, magnetic tape or optic disc, the SFA signs a contract with individual user in compliance with the valid legislation in the field.

SFA is member of the FIAF, the International Federation of Film Archives and in 2005 it hosted the 61st FIAF Congress in Ljubljana together with the Slovenian Cinematheque.

Slovenska kinoteka

Kinotečno prikazovanje filmov se je v Sloveniji začelo leta 1963 z odprtjem dvorane Jugoslovanske kinoteke v Ljubljani, pod pokroviteljstvom Društva slovenskih filmskih delavcev. Deset let pozneje je Društvo ustanovilo Filmski muzej, ki je leta 1976 začel sistematično zbirati in urejati filmske muzealije ter dokumentirati slovensko filmsko proizvodnjo. Leta 1979 se je muzej združil s Slovenskim gledališkim muzejem v SGFM. Po letu 1981 so kinotečno dvorano prevzeli Ljubljanski kinematografi, Jugoslovanska kinoteka pa jije do razpada Jugoslavije pošiljala filmske kopije iz svojega arhiva. Leta 1993 je kinotečna dvorana prešla pod skrbništvo SGFM. Slovenska kinoteka je bila formalnopravno ustanovljena leta 1996 kot kulturna ustanova nacionalnega pomena; nastala je s Sklepom o razdelitvi SGFM na dva javna zavoda – Slovenski gledališki muzej in Slovenska kinoteka, na mesto direktorja katere je bil imenovan Silvan Furlan, ki jo je uspešno vodil in razvil do prezgodnjega aprila 2005.

Slovenska kinoteka je še v času ustanavljanja, leta 1995, pripravila obsežno akcijo, posvečeno stoletnici svetovnega filma, ki jo je obeležila s prireditvami v Ljubljani in po Sloveniji. Začela je oblikovati zbirko temeljnih del iz zgodovine svetovnega filma. Med pomembnimi odkritji Slovenske kinoteke so edina originalna kopija prvega ohranjenega celovečernega filma Ernsta Lubitscha Ko sem bil mrtev (1916; svetovna premiera v Pordenonu 1995), kopija s prvim ohranjenim filmom Franzo Hoferja Prvi sledovi starosti (1913) in edina obstoječa originalna kolorirana kopija kratkega filma Žongler (Pathé', 1909) na svetu; prva dva filma je Slovenska kinoteka predstavila s knjigama v več jezikih.

Leta 1999 je Slovenska kinoteka postala pridružena članica organizacije FIAF, mednarodnega združenja filmskih arhivov in kinotek, katere generalno skupščino je v letu 2005 tudi gostila na kongresu v Ljubljani. Pri delovanju Slovenska kinoteka spoštuje Etični kodeks FIAF-a in v prvi vrsti, tako kot vsi svetovni filmski muzeji ozziroma arhivi, opravljajo nalogo čuvanja svetovne dediščine gibljivih slik.

Poleg tega so njene naloge tudi promocija filmske kulture, skrb za izobraževanje na področju filmske zgodovine in skrb za kulturno promocijo preteklih in današnjih dosežkov filmske umetnosti ter vednosti o njej. Slovenska kinoteka povezuje kinotečno in muzejsko dejavnost, njeno poslanstvo so oblikovanje, hranjenje in predstavljanje zbirke svetovnih filmov ter muzealij iz zgodovine kinematografije pa tudi opravljanje raziskovalne in strokovne publicistične dejavnosti na področju zgodovine filma ozziroma kinematografije.

Danes so filmski arhivi, muzeji in kinoteke, še posebno v manjših evropskih državah, vse bolj in bolj tudi filmska kulturna središča. V skladu s tem so tudi vsa razvojna prizadevanja Slovenske kinoteke skupaj z umetniškim kinematografom Kinodvor, sicer članom elitne organizacije Europa Cinemas, usmerjena v vedno bolj profiliran, kompleksen in artikuliran nacionalni audio-vizualni center, ki bo skrbel tako za ohranjanje filmskega spomina kakor tudi za sprotno predstavljanje dogajanja v okviru svetovne audio-vizualne umetniške produkcije in vsega, kar je povezano z njo.

V Slovenski kinoteki poteka program v skladu z najvišjimi standardi in priporočili krovnih organizacij, dejavnost se krepi in širi na vseh območjih, v letu 2006 je bilo predstavljenih več kot dvajset retrospektiv in ciklusov, založniška dejavnost je po nekaj letih spet v vzponu, filmski fond bomo do konca leta 2006 dopolnili z več novimi naslovi, prenovljena revija Ekran je našla pot do novih bralcev, DVD-tečna izposojevalnica dosega že skoraj 1000 naslofov, število obiskovalcev se konstantno vzpenja ...

The Slovenian Cinematheque

The Slovenian Cinematheque began showing films in 1963 with the opening of the Yugoslav Cinematheque hall in Ljubljana under the sponsorship of the Association of Slovenian Filmmakers. Ten years later the Association founded the Film Museum that in 1976 began to collect and process film exhibits and document Slovenian film production. Later, in 1979, the Film Museum merged with Slovenian Theatre Museum at the National Theatre and Film Museum (SGFM). After 1981 the hall was taken over by the company Ljubljanski kinematografi, and the Jugoslovenska kinoteka kept sending film prints from its archive until Yugoslavia collapsed. In 1993 the hall was passed over under the administration of SGFM.

The Slovenian Cinematheque was legally founded in the year of 1996 as national cultural institution; it was formed by the Decision of the Government. The National Theatre and Film Museum was divided into two public institutions – Slovenian Theatre Museum and Slovenian Cinematheque. Silvan Furlan was appointed a director and ran and developed it with success until April 2005, when he, much too early, passed away.

Already during the process of its establishment, in 1995, the Cinematheque organised extensive activities dedicated to the 100th Anniversary of Slovenian Film, which was marked by events in Ljubljana as well as all over our country. It also began forming a collection of essential works of the world film history. Among most significant discoveries of the Cinematheque are the only original print of the first preserved feature film When I was Dead by Ernst Lubitsch (1916; world premiere in Pordenone, Italy, 1995), a print of the first preserved film Age First Traces made in 1913 by Franz Hofer, and the only existing original coloured print of the short film The Jongleur (Pathé, 1909) in the world; the Slovenian Cinematheque presented the first two films in books that were published in several languages.

In 1999 the Slovenian Cinematheque became an associated member of the FIAF, International Federation of Film Archives and in 2005 it hosted the 61st FIAF Congress in Ljubljana. At its work, the Cinematheque respects the FIAF Code of Ethics and above all, just like all film museums or archives, works as the guardian of the world heritage of motion picture.

Besides, the task of the Cinematheque is also to promote film culture, provide for education in the field of film culture and care for cultural promotion of the past and present achievements of film art and knowledge about it. Slovenian Cinematheque also connects the cinematheque and museum activity; among its tasks are forming, keeping, and presentation of the collection of the world films and museum exhibits from the history of cinematography, and also activities in the field of researching and professional publishing of film and cinematography history.

Nowadays, film archives, museums and cinematheques, especially in smaller European states, are becoming film cultural centres. In accordance, all the developmental endeavours of the Cinematheque together with the art cinema Kinodvor, that is also a member of the organisation Europa Cinemas, directed towards more profiled, complex, and articulated national audio-visual centre, that will provide for the preservation of film memory as well as simultaneous presentation of the happening in the field of the world audio-visual art production and everything that is connected with it.

The programme in Cinematheque is in accordance with the highest standards and recommendations of umbrella organisations, their activity is strengthening and spreading in all areas. In 2006 more than twenty retrospectives and cycles were represented. After a lull of several years, the publishing activity is on upturn again, and until the end of 2006 the film fund will be completed with more new films. The renewed magazine Ekran has found its way to the readers, the DVD lending library has reached almost a number of one thousand films, and the number of visitors keeps rising all the time.

Kinodvor

Po odloku Ministrstva za kulturo RS je Slovenska kinoteka ustanovila mrežo kinodvoran za predvajanje umetniških filmov. Osrčje mreže predstavlja prenovljeni kino Kinodvor. Zgradbo v centru mesta, kjer se nahaja, so zgradili leta 1923, to je bila prva dvorana v Ljubljani, načrtovana in zgrajena posebej za predvajanje filmov. Zahvaljujoč skupini finančnih pomoči mesta Ljubljana in Ministrstva za kulturo so stavbo prenovili v očarljivem in privlačnem stilu pozne secesijske arhitekture. Tako je iz stare zgradbe nastala prvovrstna kinodvorana za predvajanje umetniških filmov z odlično tehnologijo za projekcijo in zvok. Prenovljeni Kinodvor je odprl vrata 15. oktobra 2003. Odprt je vseh 365 dni na leto, vsak dan pa se zvrstijo najmanj štirje filmi. Program sestavljajo izključno umetniški filmi: evropski, svetovni, neodvisni ameriški, a tudi klasični. Vsak teden spored zaznamuje in oseveži nova premiera. Z majhnim zamikom se ti filmi predvajajo tudi v drugih mestih po državi. Redni program Kinodvora popestrijo posebni dogodki, denimo Ljubljanski mednarodni filmski festival, predavanja režiserjev, programi za mlade in otroke. Prisotnost Kinodvora in art-kino mreže bo nedvomno imela pozitiven učinek na sprejemanje umetniškega filma v Sloveniji. V preteklosti ta ni imel svojega prostora na domačih kinematografskih platnih in se je poredko znašel na rednem sporednu domačih kinodvoran, zato Kinodvor in art-kino mreža prinašata dragocene priložnosti za filmsko vzgojo slovenskega gledalstva ter boljšo promocijo kakovostnega filma.

The Ministry of Culture mandated the Slovenska kinoteka (the National Cinematheque) to establish an art-house-cinema network in Slovenia. The heart of the network is situated in the renewed cinema Kinodvor. This building – dating from 1923 – was the very first hall in the capital designed and constructed with the sole purpose to screen films. Thanks to a joint financial effort by the City of Ljubljana and the Ministry of Culture and with respect for the style, charm and attraction of its late secession architecture, the renovation was aimed at transforming the old construction into a contemporary, first-class art-house theatre, with appropriate state-of-the-art projection- and sound-technology, a bistro, a small shop with art-house-cinema related items, a club- and study-centre and an exhibition space. The renewed Kinodvor – ideally located in the city centre – opened its doors on 15 October 2003. Like regular cinemas (and unlike other state-funded initiatives) Kinodvor is running 365 days a year, with a minimum of four screenings a day. The programme consists exclusively of art-house-cinema titles: European film, World Cinema, American independent films, as well as classic re-releases. Kinodvor is premiering these films at a rate of one new title per week. Simultaneously, and consecutively, these films also have a small-scale release in a dozen of provincial towns throughout the country. The regular Kinodvor schedule is spiced up with special events, such as the hosting of the Ljubljana International Film Festival, director's talks, panels, re-release series, youth and children programmes. Undoubtedly the presence of Kinodvor and of the Artkino Network will have a lasting and positive impact on the presence of art-house-cinema on the Slovene market. While in the past a wide range of titles would, due to the lack of screens and the lack of a strong art-house-cinema oriented education and promotion, never have been considered to be released theatrically in Slovenia, Kinodvor and the Artkino Network create new opportunities for this type of high-quality films.

AGRFT The Academy of Theatre, Radio, Film and Television

The Academy of Theatre, Radio, Film and Television (AGRFT) was founded in 1945 as an academy of acting. In 1963 film and television direction were introduced, and in 1975 the Academy became a member of the University of Ljubljana.

The Film and TV department offers a four-year university degree programme as well as post-graduate studies in film and TV directing and film history and theory. The teaching process at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels involves intensive artistic and research work, and is strongly based on individual tuition. The international exchange of students takes place under the Socrates and CEEPUS programmes.

Up to five students are admitted annually for the film and television graduate programme. During the academic year each student shoots one film and two short television works. The first two years in directing cover documentary work and the last two years fiction films and short TV drama. Students also carry out a number of exercises in film and television directing, camerawork and editing. Besides practical work, students pursue studies in numerous general and theoretical subjects. The department offers courses in film directing, television directing, camera, editing, screenwriting, sound design, dramaturgy, history and theory of film, history of drama, philosophy, psychology and others.

Producijo šolskih del deloma finančira Filmski sklad Republike Slovenije, tehnično pomoč pa nudita TV Slovenija in Filmski studio Viba film.

AGRFT je član CILECT (Centre International de Liaison des Ecoles de Cinéma et de Télévision). Filmi AGRFT redno prejemajo nagrade na festivalih študentskega in profesionalnega filma. Šola je v zadnjih nekaj letih prejela več nagrad tudi za najboljši šolski izbor filmov v celoti (München, Lodz, Beograd).

Gospodarsko interesno združenje slovenskih filmskih producentov

Gospodarsko interesno združenje slovenskih filmskih producentov je bilo ustanovljeno leta 1997 in vključuje 15 članov – producentov. Združenje predstavlja strokovno organizirano skupino slovenskih filmskih producentov, katerih namen je sodelovanje, vzpodbujanje, strokovno dopolnjevanje in praktično delovanje pri vzpostavljivosti strokovnih temeljev filmske produkcije v Sloveniji. To pomeni, da združenje aktivno sodeluje ali želi sodelovati pri strokovnih odločitvah in pripravi zakonskih in normativnih aktov za operativno delovanje slovenske produktivne kinematografije. Te temelje želi zaradi lažjega sodelovanja z sofinancerji ter domačimi in tujimi koprodukcijskimi partnerji čim bolj prilagoditi evropski filmski praksi ter na ta način izkoristiti njene pozitivne elemente. Pričakuje, da se bodo našim hotenjem na tem področju pridružili tudi drugi subjekti, ki soustvarjajo slovensko filmsko produkcijo, predvsem filmski ustvarjalci in financerji.

Društvo slovenskih filmskih ustvarjalcev

Priznanje zlata rola za nadpovprečno število gledalcev podeljuje DSFU v sodelovanju s podjetjem Kolosej Kinematografi in to organizirano pripomore k promociji slovenskega filma ter poveča njegovo konkurenčnost v domačih dvoranah. Društvo prav tako že vrsto let organizira izbor najboljšega slovenskega filma za kandidaturo za tujezicanskega oskarja. Na osnovnih šolah vodi izobraževalne filmske delavnice. Enkrat mesečno organizira večere DSFU v Kinodvoru in večere Filmske zgodbe v sklopu iniciativ Napišimo film v sodelovanju DSFU-DSP-DSR.

The production of school works is partly subsidized by Slovenian Film Fund and technical assistance is provided by TV Slovenia and the national Film studio Viba film Ljubljana.

This means that the Association actively participates or wishes to participate in expert decisions and in the preparation of the legislation for the functioning of the Slovenian productive cinematography. For the purpose of facilitating easier co-operation with co-financers and with co-production partners from home and abroad, we wish to bring these foundations in line with European film practice to as high a degree as possible and in this way take advantage of its positive aspects. We expect that many other subjects who work on Slovenian film production will join us in our work in this field, above all filmmakers and financers.
